He is considered one of the world's top experts on religion and health.

Professional credits offered by Wake AHEC

Invited Speaker

Warren Kinghorn, MD, ThD

Dr. Kinghorn is assistant professor of psychiatry and pastoral and moral theology at Duke University Medical Center and Duke Divinity School, and also a staff Psychiatrist at the Durham VA Medical Center. His interests include the role of faith communities in caring for people with mental health problems, the moral and theological dimensions of combat-related posttraumatic stress disorder, and the contributions of the theology and philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas to contemporary debates about psychiatric diagnosis, psychiatric technology and human flourishing.

Guest Speaker

*Tonya
Armstrong,
PhD, MTS*

Dr. Armstrong is Minister of Congregational Care & Counseling at Union Baptist Church in Durham where she is Training Coordinator and Continuing Education Coordinator for Stephen Ministry, and Grief Support Group Facilitator. She also is director of The Armstrong Center for Hope in Durham. Dr. Armstrong specializes in psychological and spiritual wellness, taking a client-led bio-psycho-social-spiritual view of the person in community, including couples and groups. Her expertise in practical service to members of the faith community will help guide us in developing such ministries in our own faith communities.
