Faith Connections on Mental Illness is presenting a day-long workshop to help faith communities engage, encourage, and serve persons who suffer from mental illness and those who care for them. Clergy, lay leaders, individuals, and professionals are invited to attend.

"Connecting Faith Resources with Mental Health," will be held on Friday, March 28, 2014 at St. Thomas More Catholic Church, 940 Carmichael St., Chapel Hill, NC. Keynote speaker Dr. Harold Koenig of Duke University Medical Center has published extensively in the fields of mental health, geriatrics, and religion.

Also speaking, and participating in a panel discussion on spirituality and mental health care, is Warren Kinghorn, MD, ThD, assistant professor of psychiatry and pastoral and moral theology at Duke University Medical Center and Duke Divinity School. Tonya Armstrong, PhD, MTS, will bring a practical viewpoint on integrating faith communities with mental health ministries.

Registration is $25/person by March 7 and $35 thereafter. CEUs are optional for an additional $20 via Wake AHEC. Visit faithconnectionsmentalillness.org to learn more. Register online at www.wakeahec.org or call 919-942-6227 for a registration form.
