

Reading Across Our Faith Communities

Faith Connections on Mental Illness is pleased to announce that the keynote speaker for our 2015 Spring Conference will be Amy Simpson, author of Troubled Minds: Mental Illness and the Church's Mission in which she shares her family's experience with the trauma and bewilderment of mental illness, and reminds us that people with mental illness are our neighbors and members of our faith community.

In preparation for this event, many of our supporting congregations are hosting book discussion groups. (More groups TBA soon!)
